what I'm working on

Happy July, aka that magical time of the year I smell like sweat straight for 3 weeks, iced tea becomes its own food group, and every single one of my characters insists on making terrible decisions because we are all just too hot and bothered.

But in all seriousness, my WIP Her Substitute Husband... His Brothers is pure chaos. There are:

- 👤 A Fake Marriage with Real Consequences
- ♥💊 The Allure of Three Brothers
- ♂️ An Engagement Ring with a Secret

I cannot wait for you guys to get your hands on it, and I'll spill more details below, so keep scrolling if you're curious 👁️

And, if you're like me and you've also given up on productivity in favor of reading steamy books with a fan in your face and an iced tea in your hand... you're in good company. So stick around, check out my updates, and shoot me a note about what book is at the top of your summer TBR.
